Dear Marcelino:

I am enclosing a copy of an article appearing today in the New York Times. Because the article refers to you by name and because it deals with a subject of current interest in this country (international terrorism and the possible involvement of the Soviet Union in it), it should give you an idea of some of the questions you may get from American journalists.

I am looking forward to the possibility of returning with you to Spain and of implementing my proposed research project. To this effect, I would appreciate any information you may have concerning the arrangements for such a trip.

Every day that goes by I am more convinced of the importance of your visit.

Con un fuerte abrazo,

Francisco Jose Moreno, Ph.D.
