

PRESS CONGRESS OF THE WORLD

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
AT THE SCHOOL OF JOURNALISM
UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI

COLUMBIA, MISSOURI
U. S. A.

December 15, 1921.

Mr. Rufino Blanco,
Universo,
Madrid, Spain.

Dear Mr. Blanco:

It is my high privilege to inform you that at the formal session of the Press Congress of the World in Honolulu, Hawaii, October 20, you were re-elected Vice President, for Spain, of the Press Congress. I shall hope to receive from you at your first convenience acceptance of the post to which you were unanimously elected.

A comprehensive program for the activities of the Press Congress in the future was begun at the meeting in Honolulu, and of this you will be more fully advised in an early issue of The Congress Bulletin.

The Press Congress now has promise of a career filled with real service for world journalism and for humanity, and in its great work I am confident we may count upon your hearty cooperation.

With cordial fraternal regard,

Very sincerely,

Walter Willis

President.
